

BP Trading Simulation

Are you a leadership oriented college student with a strong work ethic?

Are you a creative problem solver who excels at conflict resolution?

Are you driven to solve puzzles and like putting things back together?

Are you passionate and hungry to learn and succeed?

At BP we are looking for the right skills and innate capabilities rather than your major.

Come join us at our Trading Simulation to showcase your skills, learn more about careers at BP and how your degree matches our opportunities.
